BETHEL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Will Hold Its Annual Meeting at Pembroke This Week.

A TWO DAYS' SESSION

Pembroke People Will Give Cordial Welcome to Delegates and Visitors.

STEADILY SPREADING.

Yellow Fever Still Gaining

Mosquitoes.

EIGHTY-FOUR DEATHS.

Mississippi Now Has Several Cases and Texas is Getting Alarmed.

The annual meeting of the Bethel Baptist Association will be held at Pembroke next week, beginning Tuesday, August 8th and continuing two days. The association is made up of most of the churches of Christian county and several adjoining counties. Rev. J. S. Cheek, now of Paducah, but recently pastor of the Russellville church, is moderator, but as he has moved out of the association, a new moderator will have to be elected. Rev. H. C. McGill, of Howell, is the clerk.

The body is a strong and wealthy one and its sessions are largely attended.

The Pembroke church and the citizens generally will entertain the delegates and visitors with their usual hospitality. A large number of Hopkinsville people will attend the meetings.

CAMPING PARTY

Will Spend Some Time Near Striped Bridge.

A party consisting of H. A. Keach and family, and C. W. Jones and family, of this city, Mack Nixon and family, of Cadiz and Mrs. Keach's guest, Mrs. F. M. Bristow, of Russellville, will go to Striped Bridge next Tuesday to spend a week or ten days in camp. Doves and squirrels are plentiful, fishing at the bridge is reported good, and a fine time is anticipated. Probably several young people of the city will join the party during their stay.

Primary Officers.

Chairman James West of the City Democratic committee has appointed the following officers of election for the primary in the Sixth ward August 15:

C. F. Lacy and Will B. Neely, judges; A. M. Cooper, clerk.

The list for the First ward was not appointed at the same time, owing to the absence of one of the candidates, no list of names having been furnished. The appointments will be made later.

If brevity is the soul of Witte, the peace conference ought to be short.

Total Fec..... 66

At Ship Island quarantine, 6 known cases, 4 of which are convalescent.

In Louisiana, outside of New Orleans, and not including Shreveport, 13 scattered cases, mostly convalescent.

Shreveport, Ala., 1; convalescent.

Montgomery, Ala., 1; convalescent.

At Lumberton, Miss., 1; convalescent.

At Summerville, Miss., 1 case,

Although there was a decrease in fatalities from yellow fever in New Orleans Thursday, there was a considerable increase in the number of new cases. The authorities, however, still feel confident in their ability to cope with the plague. It was decided yesterday that a thorough campaign of city cleaning would have a fine moral effect, though the doctors do not believe it will have any direct influence upon the disease. The fact that the center of infection has been the poorest class of Italian residents seems likely to prove a powerful detriment to Italian immigration, a movement which employers of labor in the South have recently been disposed greatly to encourage.

Casky Church.

There will be regular services at the Casky Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Vaughan. At 3 p. m. the ordination of two deacons will take place. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. W. E. Mitchell, of Pembroke church, and Rev. Grant, of Salem church. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. Georgia Williamson Cox and daughter, of Auburn, are visiting friends and relatives in the city. They are accompanied by Miss Gladys Wilson.

KILLING AT PADUCAH.

Leading Banker Shoots a Lumberman to Death.

OBSERVE SUN'S ECLIPSE

Party of Scientists Go North for Event of August 30.

Paducah, Ky. Aug. 3.—H. H. Lovington, a prominent banker and capitalist, shot and instantly killed H. A. Rose, a lumber dealer, after a quarrel over a business deal in which they were engaged. Rose was shot three times and any one of the wounds would have killed him. Lovington surrendered and is under guard pending an examining trial. Lovington is cashier of the Globe Bank and Trust company.

OVER A PRECIPICE.

Drunken Yellowstone Driver
Said to Have Caused Horror.

Cody, Wyo., Aug. 2.—Word has just been received here that a drunken driver with a six-horse coach, loaded with tourists, drove over a precipice in Yellowstone Park, killing three passengers and injuring seven others. No details have been secured, as no telephone communication exists with the part of the park where the accident is said to have occurred.

QUICK WORK.

Texas Negro Sentenced to Death in Three Minutes.

Waco, Tex., Aug. 3.—The jury in the case of Sank Majors, a young negro, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. E. Roberts, wife of a young farmer near Golinda, this county, July 14 last, returned a verdict in three minutes, placing the punishment at death.

The Wonder Sale Caps the Climax

For Tremendous Crowds and Bargain Attractions.

All the morning people have been crowding through both front and back doors for a chance at the good things. The tremendous rush of the moment of opening compelled the immediate closing of the doors, the crowd inside fairly swamping us, while the waiting crowds outside awaited their turn. We inaugurated bargain crowds in Hopkinsville 18 years ago, but this beats them all and proves the continued confidence of the people in honorable merchandising.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES
Filed Here Against the L. &
N. Railroad Company.

L. T. Rigsby has sued the L. & N. railroad company for $2,000 damages. Plaintiff states in his petition that on June 27 last he purchased a ticket at Madisonville for Hopkinsville and got on the train that passes here about midnight. He further states that on boarding the train he told the conductor that as he had been losing sleep he was liable to go to sleep on the cars, and requested the captain to wake him up just before reaching Hopkinsville. Rigsby claims that the conductor promised to do so. He says that when he was aroused by the conductor he was at Ninth street and that when he reached the step he told the conductor that the surroundings did not look like Hopkinsville. Rigsby alleges that just at that moment, and while the train was in motion, he was given a terrific shove, which threw him off the train and down an embankment, at a point more than a mile south of the city. He claims that the fall caused him to sustain a sprained wrist and shoulder, that his head was injured, and that his breast and side were hurt internally. He states that he has never recovered and that his injuries are permanent, thus disqualifying him from earning a support for himself and family.

Attorney General Sturdevant, of Wisconsin, holds that under the anti-pass law editors who are also public officials, cannot use mileage for advertising, that past contracts are thereby annulled, and that railway employees who are public officials may ride free only in the discharge of duties on railroads.

CORNER STONE

Of City Bank's New Building Laid Last Wednesday.

Workmen began work on the stone front of the City Bank's new banking house last Wednesday. A recess was made in the corner stone of the southwest corner and in it was placed the following:

First a copy of the Kentuckian of July 29th, in which was published a history of the bank from its organization. Second a copy of the proceedings of the Kentucky Bankers' association, which met here last fall, and of which Mr. E. B. Long was president. A photograph of Mr. Long, now president of the Bank, and his official badge as president of the Bankers' Association; the names of the present directors of the bank and their signatures; the names of the employees of the bank; a sample of smoking tobacco manufactured here; a Mexican silver half-dollar, U. S. silver half-dime, 3 coppers, 1 and 2 cent postage stamps; a Spanish War revenue stamp and copy of the New Era.

In Honor of their Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leavell, of Bolivar, entertained last night in honor of their attractive guests, Misses Stratton, Farr and Grimes. A number of young people from the city attended.

The Hon. John W. Alexander, formerly Representative from Mason county in General Assembly, is dead at Maysville.

The Madisonville Graphic, the independent paper of Hopkins county, which supports the Democratic county ticket, has declared its intention to support Wm. Lynch for Senator, because it thinks he will make a better lawmaker than Frank Rives. Does the Graphic wish to be understood as favoring Lynch law?

The Home Telephone Company is meeting with great encouragement in the McKenzie exchange, which bids fair to run up to 100 subscribers. The farmers of the neighborhood are investing a good deal of their own capital in the plant. Telephone properties wherever well managed and backed by a healthy public sentiment are money-making investments. The new exchange, located on the State line, will have exceptional advantages and subscribers may be connected with either or both county exchanges. The Home Telephone Company is in a prosperous condition and the first year of business, which closed August 1st, finds it rapidly extending its lines into all parts of the county and its long distance connections will be completed when the line is finished from Crofton to Henderson.

OPENS TO-DAY.

President Will Receive
Russian and Japanese Commissioners.

MONDAY IS BUSY DAY:

Paris Is Not Sure of The Success of The Peace Negotiations.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 4. | Third
Assistant Secretary of State Pierce has completed the programme for the formal presentation of the peace envoys to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay on to-morrow. The Japanese commissioners will leave New York at 9 o'clock in the morning on the cruiser Tacoma. The Russians will follow half an hour later on the Chattanooga. At Oyster Bay they will be received by the President on board the Mayflower in the order of their arrival. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the President will leave the Mayflower and shortly afterwards the Japanese will board Dolphin, on which the trip to Portsmouth will be made. The Russian delegation will remain aboard the Mayflower and proceed to Portsmouth at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Paris Is Pessimistic.

Paris, Aug. 4.—The arrival in New York of M. Witte attracts much attention and is the source of considerable comment in official and diplomatic circles. The prevailing view is pessimistic over the success of the conference and this sentiment is increased by St. Petersburg dispatches stating that the war element is now in complete ascendancy.

Springs road, on next Wednesday afternoon at six o'clock.

Miss Nabb is a daughter of Esq.
E. N. Nabb, one of the leading teachers of the county and is a very popular and accomplished young lady.

Mr. Caldwell is the son of Surveyor John H. Caldwell, of the Wallonia neighborhood, and is one of the most industrious and promising young farmers in the county.—Record.

Against _____

Equity.
Howard P. Rives et al

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Christian circuit court, rendered at the June term thereof, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale the contents of the house in Hopkinsville, Ky., to the highest and best bidder, at a public auction, on Monday, the 7th day of August, 1905, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m., (being county court day), upon a credit of six months, on the following described property, to-wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in Christian county, Kentucky, on the State line between Kentucky and Tennessee, and formerly belonging to H. P. Rives, and which has for the purposes of this sale been divided into two tracts or parcels, as follows:

FIRST TRACT—Beginning at a stone on the south side of the State line, original Rives and Dennis corner; thence with Dennis line N. 88 E. 95 poles to a stake, corner to the north-east corner of L. O. Gandy's thence with division line N. 87 W. 93 poles to a stake, corner to the western portion; thence with the division line N. 8 W. 105 poles to a stake in the State line near the corner of the Gandy's line; thence with the State line and N. 88 E. 12 poles to a stake in front of John Shaw's residence; thence again with State line N. 85 E. 83 poles to the beginning; containing 68 acres.

SECOND TRACT—Beginning at a stone on the Proctor line being N. W. corner, &c., thence with Proctor's line S. 3 W. 113 poles to a stake in State line road; thence with said road N. 78 E. 484 poles; S. 37 E. 88 poles; N. 88 E. 341 poles to a stake near Shaw's garden; a corner of the S. 3 W. 105 poles line of division N. 3 E. 105 poles to a stake in the Garrett line; thence with said line N. 87 W. 169 poles to the beginning; containing 116 acres.

The above two tracts of land will be sold for division, and the first will be offered separately, and the first as well as the second will be bid bringing the most money will be accepted.

For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, covering the purchase and effect a replevin bond. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Douglas Bell,
Master Commissioner.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

W. T. WILLIAMSON, Commissioner
G. C. BUCKNER,

THREE BIG DAYS.

"Dark Tobacco Grower's Association Day," "Kentucky Day," "Tennessee Day."

Preparations have practically been completed for the opening of the Guthrie fair on August 17, and there is every indication that the fair of the present year will be one of the best attended of any ever held in the Todd county railroad center.

The fair will continue three days, August 17 having been designated "Dark Tobacco Grower's Association Day," when it is expected that every farmer in the counties adjacent to Guthrie in both Kentucky and Tennessee, who are friendly to the tobacco organization, will be present. Many of the leaders in the movement which has been so heartily endorsed by the farmers of the black tobacco district will be present on the opening day, August 18 will be "Kentucky Day," and August 19, "Tennessee Day."

A most attractive programme of races has been arranged by the fair association, in addition to the regular premium list which has been offered for horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and farm products. One of the most pleasing features of the entire programme will be three special trophies which will be have been offered to the champion classes.

These trophies will be solid silver cups valued at $25 each, and will be presented by the Bank of Guthrie, Hotel Wh. Low, of Guthrie, and the fair association for the best saddle and harness gelding, mare and stallion respectively. These classes represent the best, or sweepstakes competition. The contests are open to the world, nothing barred, and carry with their award the championship in each event. The championship cups are to be the property of the fair association, which will be contested for until they are won twice—although not necessarily in succession—by the same contestants, after which they become the personal property of the winner. The regular racing programme provides purses aggregating $2,000, and offers a variety of contests that will please every lover of horseflesh. There will be both running and harness races. The fair association has made the strictest of rules regarding gambling and objectionable conduct, which will be rigidly enforced, so that there will be nothing to mar the success of the fair.

NEVER SAW THE LIKE OF
IT BEFORE.

3,500 Or 4,000 People Were
at Gracey's Big Barbecue.

ORATORY GALORE.

While Belles and Beaux Seek Shady Nooks and Talk of "Trusts" of Their Own.

Thursday, August 3d, will be a historical day with our little neighbor, Gracey, and if the crowd that gathered there is an index as to the opinion of the people, everybody belongs to or would belong to the Tobacco Growers Association.

People swarmed in from every point of the compass. Trains carried them in by the hundreds, some twenty vehicles, others horseback and others living near walked.

Hopkinsville was there, two trains loaded to the guards—even the baggage car was packed, while a large number drove through.

Henderson, Madisonville, Trenton, Princeton, Clarksville, Pembroke—well, it would be hard to tell where the people didn't come from. But they "got there" from everywhere. The crowd has been estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000, but it might be safe to say that 3,500 people were in attendance, and hereafter the Graceyites will date everything from the "big barbecue."

In the morning the gathering was addressed by Hon. John Allen, of Clarksville. Mr. Allen an aged man and has lived through many changes in the tobacco interests; has seen the farmer get a remunerative price for his weed as well as his warehousemen who sold tobacco for him a good living for himself; has seen the warehouses closed and the tobacco raiser reduced almost to want because prices had been squeezed down to the minimum by the trust that has had the honest farmer by the throat already too long. He believes that the day of final account has arrived and that the Tobacco Association is the only remedy for existing evils. The farmer must "work out his own salvation."

Mr. W. W. Radford, the chairman of the County Executive Committee, addressed his fellow farmers. He received the most earnest attention as he laid before the farmers facts demonstrating the great need of self-protection and the folly of their raising crop after crop of tobacco for the use of the tobacco trust at a price that absolutely will not pay for the cost of production.

Mr. C. P. Warfield, of Clarksville, also laid before the people the great need of shielding themselves from further aggressions of their arch-enemy. He urged upon every member of the Association to remain true to the compact into which he had entered and use all his persuasive powers to bring his neighbor into the fold that is sheltered by the tobacco Association.

After partaking of the feast that had been prepared under the management of the barbecue committee, Hon. J. W. Gaines of Tennessee, spoke at length and convincingly of the duty of every raiser of tobacco to go into the organization, which has but one object, the self protection of the farmer against the inroads of the trust, which at this time has almost brought him to abject want. His revelations of the modes of the trust, the unanimous passage of the tobacco bill by a Republican Congress, and his denunciation of the man who goes into the Tobacco Growers' Association and deliberately violates his pledge received the utmost attention and cannot fail to strengthen the Association—not only by the accession of the farmers, but will cause any who might be weakening to remain firm.

Congressman A. O. Stanley, of Henderson, followed in one of the most convincing arguments of the day. He gave an array of facts and figures outlining in brief the growth of the tobacco trust—from the time the great Duke saw his palace window what Rockefeller had done for the oil industry of our country and his being at that moment impelled to do the same thing for the tobacco interests, on up to his being the cause of one factor going to the wall, and then another and so on until everything dropped into the grasp of the tobacco trust. He held up in no enviable light the many oppressive acts of the trust, and bringing into play his power of eloquence so engrossed the attention of his hearers that the remarks of Mr. Stanley will remain in their memory, impelling them to do their duty and endeavor to build up the organization.

SCRAPS.

The young men and their girls had the time of their lives, though hoping for still better. Many a shaded and secluded nook was found, and doubtless there are other "trusts" to be formed.

Everybody was happy and full of barbecued meat, enthusiasm and dust.

The red lemonade men did a land office business.

Two hogheads of baker's bread were sent from Hopkinsville, and 71 carcasses were barbecued.

It was grand to watch the young fellows lead off a bevy of young ladies with a big watermelon. And what a time they had.

There were but few men to be seen—mostly young fellows—and the best of order was obtained.

Everybody was happy and in a good humor and enjoyed the fullest of the day's outing.
